If you ever wonder “Why Do They Act That Way?” when trying to support your middle school student, you might enjoy our book club. Join me (Ms. Stanton) and other LMS grown-ups from 7-9pm on January 7th, 14th, and 22nd in the learning commons. We will be learning and collaborating about how to better understand, serve, andwell.....hmmmm.....survive this wondrous stage of child development.
